

IDEA SCHOOL OF DESIGN
CAPILANO UNIVERSITY

November 11, 2024

LETTER OF RECOMMENDATION

To whom it may concern,

I have taught Cameron Skorulski for two years as his design instructor in 1st and 2nd year of the Idea School of Design at Capilano University. He was in my Design Survey II class in the Spring 2024 semester and in Design Studio I this Fall semester.

Cameron has come a long way in the two semesters I have had him in my class. A lot of this has to do with his enthusiastic attitude to keep learning, and his openness to exploring new ways of looking at things. He is extremely hard-working, a very talented illustrator and a solid up-and-coming designer. Cameron is very thoughtful and strategic in his approach to every design and communications problem, and does a lot of research to make sure that he understands every aspect of the problem so that he can create the best solution.

He will be an asset to any work environment, not only due to his great work ethic, but also due to the fact that he's a real team player, takes direction well, and is a valuable, well-liked member of his class cohort. Cameron is not only talented and smart, but he's a genuinely nice person. I can't recommend him enough.

Sincerely,

Vida Jurcic
Instructor, Idea School of Design, Capilano University
Partner & Co-creative Director
Hangar 18 Design Continuum
604 220 2299